

What's Happening Around Missouri.....

- ❑ Lori Baer, Assistant Director of Financial Aid at Avila College has decided to be a stay at home mom with her four young boys.
- ❑ Bea Brown at Maple Woods Community College will be retiring this month.
- ❑ Chris Forderhase, Financial Aid Director of Central Methodist College will be leaving. She will be getting married June 29 and heading for North Dakota. Good luck!
- ❑ Courtney Siebert is the new Financial Aid Director of Central Methodist College in Fayette. Courtney started on June 3.
- ❑ Katherine Turner of Versura gave birth to her first child, Alexandria Josephine on April 11.
- ❑ The Professional Development Committee finished the 2002 Summer Staff Workshops. Reports are that they were informative and fun. Good job PD Committee!

If you know of things happening around the state please share. Send a message to me at comstockal@mail.avila.edu. This can be job changes, accomplishments, marriages, births etc. We want to know what is happening with you!